

Lecture 06 — Have & Has

In this lecture, the focus is on have and has and their practical use—especially when we need to tell someone that something belongs to a person. This concept is used in the present → past → future, positive, negative, interrogative, and negative-interrogative and WH-question patterns that we will practice throughout the lecture.

LECTURE BLUEPRINT

Have / Has → Possession → Subject Rule → Practice

Negative → Do/Does + Not + Have

Interrogative → Do/Does + Subject + Have

WH → WH + Do/Does + Subject + Have

Paragraph Translation → 10 Verbs → Homework

1. Have — Two Important Uses

In this lecture, we will explore the two basic meanings/examples of have from the start:

Use 1 — “लीजिए / लें”

Kisi person ko kuch offer ya lena ke sense mein.

Have water.

Have breakfast.

Use 2 — “पास है”

Kisi person ke paas koi cheez hone ki information.

I have time.

You have money.

SIMPLE SPOKEN EXAMPLES

Have water. — पानी लीजिए।

Have breakfast. — नाश्ता कीजिए।

Have some patience. — थोड़ा धैर्य रखिए।

TODAY'S MAIN FOCUS

Have / Has = “पास है” बताने के लिए

Jab humein batana ho ki mere paas, tumhare paas, uske paas, unke paas kya hai, tab possession wala use important ho jata hai.

2. Have / Had / Will Have — Three Tenses

In this lecture, we will connect the possession concept to three time frames:

Time	Form	Example	Meaning
Present	Have / Has	I have time.	मेरे पास समय है।
Past	Had	I had time.	मेरे पास समय था।
Future	Will have	I will have a car.	मेरे पास कार होगी।

RECALL

Present → Have / Has | Past → Had | Future → Will Have

3. Present — Have या Has?

MASTER RULE

I / We / You / They / Plural → HAVE

He / She / It / Name / Singular → HAS

Subject	Correct Form	Example
I	have	I have a car.
We	have	We have power.
You	have	You have money.
They	have	They have weapons.
He	has	He has an iPhone.
She	has	She has a bag.
It	has	It has a problem.
Ram / Raju / Any singular name	has	Raju has a chance.

I → HAVE

We / You → HAVE

He / She → HAS

Name → HAS

4. Possession — “Mere Paas...”

Basic idea simple hai: Hindi mein agar sentence mein “पास” aa raha hai, toh possession wala have/has pattern check karo.

Hindi	English
मेरे पास कार है।	I have a car.
मेरे पास घर है।	I have a house.
मेरे पास समय है।	I have time.
मेरे पास पैसा है।	I have money.
मेरे पास दिमाग है।	I have a mind.
मेरे पास अंग्रेजी का ज्ञान है।	I have English knowledge.

25-THING CHALLENGE

Apne baare mein 25 things list karo jo tumhare paas hain aur har ek ko English mein bolo.

I have a mobile. | I have a bike. | I have a good family.

5. More Possession Examples

Hindi Idea	English
मेरे पास मोबाइल है।	I have a mobile.
मेरे पास बहुत सारे कपड़े हैं।	I have many pairs of clothes.
मेरे पास एक अच्छा परिवार है।	I have a good family.
मेरे पास एक बाइक है।	I have a bike.
मेरे पास चार गायें हैं।	I have four cows.
मेरे पास four acres of land है।	I have four acres of land.
मेरे पास चार कुर्सियाँ हैं।	I have four chairs.
मेरे पास कई दोस्त हैं।	I have many friends.
मेरे पास एक जोड़ी चप्पल है।	I have one pair of slippers.
मेरे पास दो जोड़ी जूते हैं।	I have two pairs of shoes.

SPEAKING PRACTICE

Jo thought mind mein aaye, use English mein bolo. Sirf read karna enough nahi; speaking practice zaroori hai.

6. Subject Change — Has vs Have

Ab subject ko change karke dekho. Isi se actual has vs have clarity build hoti hai.

Hindi	English	Why?
उसके पास iPhone है।	He has an iPhone.	He → has
हमारे पास शक्ति है।	We have power.	We → have
राजू के पास मौका है।	Raju has a chance.	Name → has
उनके पास हथियार हैं।	They have weapons.	They → have
तुम्हारे पास English सीखने का मौका है।	You have a chance to learn English.	You → have

7. Infinitive — “करने का मौका / समय / पैसा”

KEY FORMULA

Have/Has + Noun + to + Verb (First Form)

Lecture mein thoda higher-level sentence banane ke liye to + verb's first form ka use introduce kiya gaya.

Hindi	English
मेरे पास तुमसे मिलने का मौका है।	I have a chance to meet you.
तुम्हारे पास अमेरिका जाने का मौका है।	You have a chance to go to America.
उसके पास यहाँ रात रुकने का मौका है।	He has a chance to stay here at night.
मेरे पास खर्च करने के लिए पैसा है।	I have money to spend.

BIG SENTENCE STRATEGY

Jab sentence bada lage, use 2 parts mein break karo.

Part 1: Have/Has + Noun

Part 2: to + Verb (First Form) + Remaining Words

8. More Simple Practice

Hindi	English
मेरे पास एक किताब है।	I have a book.
उसके पास एक मोबाइल है।	He has a mobile.
तुम्हारे पास अच्छा मौका है।	You have a good chance.
उसके पास नया लैपटॉप है।	He has a new laptop.
मेरे पास एक पुराना बैग है।	I have an old bag.

CONSISTENCY RULE

English learning mein regularity important hai. Sirf ek din padhkar gap dene se speaking automatic nahi hoti; daily reading + sentence making + speaking practice continue karo.

9. Negative Sentences — Do / Does

NEGATIVE FORMULA

Subject + Do/Does + NOT + Have + Object

IMPORTANT SHIFT

Jab sentence mein do/does + not aa gaya, main verb have rahega—even with a singular subject.

He has → He does not have

Subject	Pattern	Example
I / We / You / They	do not have	I do not have time.
He / She / It / Singular	does not have	He does not have a house.

10. Common Negative Examples
